

YOU'RE INVITED

FREE KICK-OFF EVENT

GHANA

BERMUDA

AFRICA · THE CARIBBEAN · ONE CONVERSATION

Roots & Routes Exchange

Ghana and Bermuda share their stories with each other, live by video

Two nations joined by shared roots across the Atlantic are meeting face to face. In this live video exchange, participants in Ghana and Bermuda each present their own country: its history, culture, traditions and everyday life. Then they talk with each other directly.

Ghana Shares Ghana

Presented by participants in Ghana

- History, from ancient kingdoms to independence in 1957
- Kente, Adinkra symbols, music and dance
- Languages, food and family traditions
- School, community and daily life today

Live Dialogue

Ask questions, compare experiences and build friendships

Bermuda Shares Bermuda

Presented by participants in Bermuda

- Island history and heritage
- Gombey dancers, Cup Match and local traditions
- Food, music and island customs
- School, community and daily life today

GUEST SPEAKER

Dr. David A. Fiifi Sam
President, Bermuda College

DATE

Friday, November 13, 2026

HOST SITE

Oiada International Cultural Center, Ghana

TIME

10:00 AM Ghana (GMT)
6:00 AM Bermuda

JOIN FROM ANYWHERE

Live by video

Take part from your school, campus or community site

Free to take part. Sponsored by Kean University and hosted by Oiada International. No travel needed, because everyone joins from their own location through live video conferencing.

Students

Schools & Colleges

Educators

Families

Community Groups

Anyone Curious

Share Your Story.
Discover Theirs.

Be part of the first Roots & Routes connection between Ghana and Bermuda.

TO JOIN OR LEARN MORE

info@oiadaintl.org

Please register by October 31, 2026

SPONSORED BY

Hosted by Oiada International